I am searching for my Oiler ancestors (maybe Oyler) from Gallia County, OH around Vinton, OH. I remember an Uncle Pearly who died during the 1970's because I went to his funeral. He was sister to my grandmother Nina May Oiler (from my mother's birth certificate) born March 6, 1905 in Vinton, Ohio. She married Razo Jennings who may have been born in Salem, Indiana in 1896. If you see a connection could you e-mail me, I would be forever grateful. Dorene 46106

SAMUEL OYLER born PA.

Posted by Cindy on November 01, 1998 at 22:32:11:

I am searching for information on SAMUEL OYLER who married Polly CALDWELL in VA in the late 1700's to very early 1800's. They were living in Gallia County Ohio by the year 1810. I need to know the parents of SAMUEL. Samuel and Polly had the following children. Samuel, Sarah (Sallie), Susannah, Rhoda, James, Harry, Henry, John, Rebecca. Polly must have died around 1839 because SAMUEL married Elizabeth BASS. They had the following children:

Peter Pearl, George W, Andrew J. Frederick S, and Jacob.

Can anyone help me?

Thanks in advance

Searching for information on Samuel Oyler who married Polly Caldwell, supposedly in Rockbridge County Virginia in the late 1700's to very early 1800's. They moved to Gallia County Ohio by 1810 where they had many children. One of their sons was born in Rockbridge. Their children are: Samuel, Sarah (Sallie), Susannah, Harry, Henry, James, John, Rebecca, Rhoda. Polly must have died around or before 1839 because Samuel remarried Elizabeth Bass and had the following children with her: Andrew J, Peter Pearl, George W., Frederick S, Jacob. Any information would be GREATLY appreciated. I have no where else to turn. I have looked everywhere and cannot find any information about who his parents were.

Thanks so much in advance

Hi!

I am interested in trading info on the EILER line in the Summit Co., OH area around the late 1800s and early 1900s.

I have a Paul EILER who married and Eva NAGY probably around 1910. He was born in 1879 in Germany I think and she was born 1885 in Germany. Thanks! Angie Doan adoan@dot-net.net

I have Ellers from NJ who descended from John Eiler in Germany. There was a JACOB ELLER, whose birthdate I don't know. He was the son of Peter Eller, born 1821, and Eva Catherine Wind, born 1826 (both in Germany).

Are we related?

Abercrombie Family Genealogy Forum

- Re: Abercrombie/Bolt, SC 9/21/98

Introduction

The purpose of this document is to provide a comprehensive overview of the project's objectives, scope, and timeline. It is intended for use by all stakeholders involved in the project, including the project manager, team members, and sponsors.

Project Objectives

The primary objective of this project is to develop a new software application that will streamline the company's internal processes and improve efficiency. The secondary objectives are to ensure the application is user-friendly, secure, and scalable.

The project will be managed using a structured approach, with regular communication and reporting to the project manager. The project manager will be responsible for coordinating the project team, managing the budget, and ensuring the project is completed on time and within scope.

Project Scope

The project scope includes the development, testing, and deployment of the new software application. It also includes the training of end-users and the documentation of the application's functionality.

The project will be completed by the end of the fiscal year. The project manager will provide regular updates on the project's progress and any issues that arise.

Project Timeline

The project timeline is as follows:

- Phase 1: Requirements Gathering (2 weeks)
- Phase 2: Design (4 weeks)
- Phase 3: Development (8 weeks)
- Phase 4: Testing (2 weeks)
- Phase 5: Deployment (1 week)

The project manager will provide a detailed project schedule, including the start and end dates for each phase and the tasks to be completed during each phase.

Conclusion

This document provides a high-level overview of the project. For more detailed information, please refer to the project charter and the project management plan.

I was just surfing the net and put in "Eiler" just for fun. I was surprised to find this site. I would love to learn more about my family tree. My Grandparents are from Oakville, MO There names were Alberta and Wilfred and they owned a large farm. I would love to know where there grandparents and parents came from. I always thought it was Germany? Does anyone know if thats right?

hi there

i just want to ask you something.. there was 12 of children. some of children have there last name spell EILER and the rest has EYLER.

I do remember my father tell us that his father was married to someone that live in Mo. that my grandfather was married before he married Maude Lowman. he had wife with 4 or 5 children. he left and live in Indiana.

just maybe that we can find the connection too..

A STORY THAT WILL TOUCH YOUR HEART

He was in the first third grade class I taught at Saint Mary's School in Morris, Minn. All 34 of my students were dear to me, but Mark Eklund was one in a million.

Very neat in appearance, but had that happy-to-be-alive attitude that made even his occasional mischievousness delightful.

Mark talked incessantly. I had to remind him again and again that talking without permission was not acceptable. What impressed me so much, though, was his sincere response every time I had to correct him for misbehaving -

"Thank you for correcting me, Sister!"

I didn't know what to make of it at first, but before long I became accustomed to hearing it many times a day.

One morning my patience was growing thin when Mark talked once too often, and then I made a novice-teacher's mistake. I looked at Mark and said, "If you say one more word, I am going to tape your mouth shut!"

It wasn't ten seconds later when Chuck blurted out, "Mark is talking again."

I hadn't asked any of the students to help me watch Mark, but since I had stated the punishment in front of the class, I had to act on it. I remember the scene as if it had occurred this morning. I walked to my desk, very deliberately opened by drawer and took out a roll of masking tape. Without saying a word, I proceeded to Mark's desk, tore off two pieces of tape and made a big X with them over his mouth. I then returned to the front of the room.

As I glanced at Mark to see how he was doing, he winked at me. That did it! I started laughing. The class cheered as I walked back to Mark's desk, removed the tape, and shrugged my shoulders. His first words were,

"Thank you for correcting me, Sister."

At the end of the year, I was asked to teach junior-high math. The years flew by, and before I knew it Mark was in my classroom again. He was more handsome than ever and just as polite. Since he had to listen carefully to my instruction in the "new math," he did not talk as much in ninth grade as he had in third.

One Friday, things just didn't feel right. We had worked hard on a new concept all week, and I sensed that the students were frowning, frustrated with themselves - and edgy with one another. I had to stop this crankiness before it got out of hand. So I asked them to list the names of the other students in the room on two sheets of paper, leaving a space between each name. Then I told them to think of the nicest thing they could say about each of their classmates and write it down.

It took the remainder of the class period to finish their assignment, and as the students left the room, each one handed me the papers. Charlie smiled.

Mark said, "Thank you for teaching me, Sister. Have a good weekend."

That Saturday, I wrote down the name of each student on a separate sheet of paper, and I listed what everyone else had said about that individual.

On Monday I gave each student his or her list. Before long, the entire class was smiling.

"Really?" I heard whispered. "I never knew that meant anything to anyone!"

"I didn't know others liked me so much."

No one ever mentioned those papers in class again. I never knew if they discussed them after class or with their parents, but it didn't matter. The exercise had accomplished its purpose. The students were happy with themselves and one another again.

That group of students moved on. Several years later, after I returned from vacation, my parents met me at the airport. As we were driving home, Mother asked me the usual questions about the trip - the weather, my experiences in general. There was a lull in the conversation. Mother gave Dad a side-glance and simply says, "Dad?"

My father cleared his throat as he usually did before something important.

"The Eklunds called last night," he began.

"Really?" I said. "I haven't heard from them in years. I wonder how Mark is."

Dad responded quietly.

"Mark was killed in Vietnam," he said. "The funeral is tomorrow, and his parents would like it if you could attend."

To this day I can still point to the exact spot on I-494 where Dad told me about Mark. I had never seen a serviceman in a military coffin before. Mark looked so handsome, so mature. All I could think at that moment was, Mark I would give all the masking tape in the world if only you would talk to me.

The church was packed with Mark's friends. Chuck's sister sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Why did it have to rain on the day of the funeral? It was difficult enough at the graveside.

The pastor said the usual prayers, and the bugler played taps. One by one those who loved Mark took a last walk by the coffin and sprinkled it with holy water. I was the last one to bless the coffin.

As I stood there, one of the soldiers who acted as pallbearer came up to me.

"Were you Mark's math teacher?" he asked. I nodded as I continued to stare at the coffin.

"Mark talked about you a lot," he said. After the funeral, most of Mark's former classmates headed to Chuck's farmhouse for lunch. Mark's mother and father were there, obviously waiting for me. "We want to show you something," his father said, taking a wallet out of his pocket. "They found this on Mark when he was killed. We thought you might recognize it."

Opening the billfold, he carefully removed two worn pieces of notebook paper that had obviously been taped, folded and refolded many times. I knew without looking that the papers were the ones on which I had listed all the good things each of Mark's classmates had said about him.

"Thank you so much for doing that," Mark's mother said. "As you can see, Mark treasured it."

Mark's classmates started to gather around us. Charlie smiled rather sheepishly and said, "I still have my list. It's in the top drawer of my desk at home."

Chuck's wife said, "Chuck asked me to put his in our wedding album."

"I have mine too," Marilyn said. "It's in my diary."

Then Vicki, another classmate, reached into her pocketbook, took out her wallet and showed her worn and razzed list to the group. "I carry this with me at all times," Vicki said without batting an eyelash. "I think we all saved our lists."

That's when I finally sat down and cried. I cried for Mark and for all his friends who would never see him again.

A STORY THAT WILL TOUCH YOUR HEART

He was in the first third grade class I taught at Saint Mary's School in Morris, Minn. All 34 of my students were dear to me, but Mark Eklund was one in a million.

Very neat in appearance, but had that happy-to-be-alive attitude that made even his occasional mischievousness delightful.

Mark talked incessantly. I had to remind him again and again that talking without permission was not acceptable. What impressed me so much, though, was his sincere response every time I had to correct him for misbehaving -

"Thank you for correcting me, Sister!"

I didn't know what to make of it at first, but before long I became accustomed to hearing it many times a day.

One morning my patience was growing thin when Mark talked once too often, and then I made a novice-teacher's mistake. I looked at Mark and said, "If you say one more word, I am going to tape your mouth shut!"

It wasn't ten seconds later when Chuck blurted out, "Mark is talking again."

I hadn't asked any of the students to help me watch Mark, but since I had stated the punishment in front of the class, I had to act on it. I remember the scene as if it had occurred this morning. I walked to my desk, very deliberately opened my drawer and took out a roll of masking tape. Without saying a word, I proceeded to Mark's desk, tore off two pieces of tape and made a big X with them over his mouth. I then returned to the front of the room.

As I glanced at Mark to see how he was doing, he winked at me. That did it!! I started laughing. The class cheered as I walked back to Mark's desk, removed the tape, and shrugged my shoulders. His first words were,

"Thank you for correcting me, Sister."

At the end of the year, I was asked to teach junior-high math. The years flew by, and before I knew it Mark was in my classroom again. He was more handsome than ever and just as polite. Since he had to listen carefully to my instruction in the "new math," he did not talk as much in ninth grade as he had in third.

One Friday, things just didn't feel right. We had worked hard on a new concept all week, and I sensed that the students were frowning, frustrated with themselves - and edgy with one another. I had to stop this crankiness before it got out of hand. So I asked them to list the names of the other students in the room on two sheets of paper, leaving a space between each name. Then I told them to think of the nicest thing they could say about each of their classmates and write it down.

It took the remainder of the class period to finish their assignment, and as the students left the room, each one handed me the papers. Charlie smiled.

Mark said, "Thank you for teaching me, Sister. Have a good weekend."

That Saturday, I wrote down the name of each student on a separate sheet of paper, and I listed what everyone else had said about that individual.

On Monday I gave each student his or her list. Before long, the entire class was smiling.

"Really?" I heard whispered.

"I never knew that meant anything to anyone!"

"I didn't know others liked me so much."

No one ever mentioned those papers in class again. I never knew if they discussed them after class or with their parents, but it didn't matter. The exercise had accomplished its purpose. The students were happy with themselves and one another again.

That group of students moved on. Several years later, after I returned from vacation, my parents met me at the airport. As we were driving home, Mother asked me the usual questions about the trip - the weather, my experiences in general. There was a lull in the conversation. Mother gave Dad a side-ways glance and simply says, "Dad?"

My father cleared his throat as he usually did before something important.

"The Eklunds called last night," he began.

"Really?" I said. "I haven't heard from them in years. I wonder how Mark is."

Dad responded quietly.

"Mark was killed in Vietnam," he said. "The funeral is tomorrow, and his parents would like it if you could attend."

To this day I can still point to the exact spot on I-494 where Dad told me about Mark. I had never seen a serviceman in a military coffin before. Mark looked so handsome, so mature. All I could think at that moment was, Mark I would give all the masking tape in the world if only you would talk to me.

The church was packed with Mark's friends. Chuck's sister sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Why did it have to rain on the day of the funeral? It was difficult enough at the graveside.

The pastor said the usual prayers, and the bugler played taps. One by one those who loved Mark took a last walk by the coffin and sprinkled it with holy water. I was the last one to bless the coffin.

As I stood there, one of the soldiers who acted as pallbearer came up to me.

"Were you Mark's math teacher?" he asked. I nodded as I continued to stare at the coffin. "Mark talked about you a lot," he said.

After the funeral, most of Mark's former classmates headed to Chuck's farmhouse for lunch. Mark's mother and father were there, obviously waiting for me. "We want to show you something," his father said, taking a wallet out of his pocket. "They found this on Mark when he was killed. We thought you might recognize it."

Opening the billfold, he carefully removed two worn pieces of notebook paper that had obviously been taped, folded and refolded many times. I knew without looking that the papers were the ones on which I had listed all the good things each of Mark's classmates had said about him.

"Thank you so much for doing that," Mark's mother said. "As you can see, Mark treasured it."

Mark's classmates started to gather around us. Charlie smiled rather sheepishly and said, "I still have my list. It's in the top drawer of my desk at home."

Chuck's wife said, "Chuck asked me to put his in our wedding album."

"I have mine too," Marilyn said. "It's in my diary."

Then Vicki, another classmate, reached into her pocketbook, took out her wallet and showed her worn and razzled list to the group. "I carry this with me at all times," Vicki said without batting an eyelash. "I think we all saved our lists."

That's when I finally sat down and cried. I cried for Mark and for all his friends who would never see him again.

I am seeking information on Charles OYLER. The 1880 Census, Lauramie Twp., Tippecanoe Co., pg 3, lists Elizabeth WRIGHT, 63 Eng, Eng, Eng. Living with her was Charles OYLER, 23, farmer, nephew, Oh, Eng, Ger. Elizabeth was the widow of Charles WRIGHT, and daughter of Samuel & Sophia 33272-33273 (RABSON) OYLER. Hopefully Charles can lead to the identity of Elizabeth's missing brother. Any information would be greatly appreciated.

OLYERS of northern NY

[Follow Ups] [Post Followup] [Return to Message Listings] [Help]

Posted by Patricia Trombley Leight on July 29, 1998 at 21:37:04: Res over

I have only 3 generations of Olyers to share. Would like to go further back and would like to meet fellow descendants.

Philip OLYER- probably came from Quebec province, listed as a carpenter in Chazy, NY, Clinton County census of 1850. Wife Lucritia Leach. Had a son JOHN OLYER listed as a lumberman in 1900 census Clinton County.

John married Charlotte Elizabeth Scott.

Their children:

Berland(Berlin)

Riley

Adelbert

Mary Elizabeth

Beatrice

Lottie

Nora

Florence

All born between 1876 and 1900.

James Caleb Garrison and Katie Morgan had a son Joseph who married Mary (Polly) Iler and a son Caleb who married Sarah Iler. I'm really stuck on the Iler family and hope someone has some clue about them. It might be spelled Oyler or Eiler. The only other Iler I have found was in Bulloch County.

My GGrandfather Geo. W. OYLEAR was a US Deputy Marshall in 1923 in Idaho. I have no information at all on his ancestry. His daughter Gertrude Irene, married my Grandfather George Horace Phelps, Ap 10, 1930 in Boise Idaho. If anyone has any info. I would love to share with you.

I don't know how significant this is, but my 2nd ggrandmother's name was Mary Eiler, m. Armsted Sivage cir. 1870 in Perquimans County, NC. That is all I know of her - would love to find more!!

Looking for ancestors of William Iler of Bulloch Co. GA. He was born, possibly in Sumter Co., S.C. ca. 1800, and died in Bulloch Co. in 1862. I descend from his daughter Mary (1822-1888) who was the wife of Thomas H. Denmark.

shortly after my son was born, I went to keep house for Isaac Iler who lived several miles from Tiffin, but I do not know in what township it was. I stayed at Iler's all summer, and when I left there, I went to keep house for Reuben Lott who lived in Liberty Township, in this county. I do not know how long I lived at Mr. Lott's, but I think it was several years.

From his house, I went to keep house for Joe Ogle, who lived in the country, about four miles from Tiffin, near Mr. John Haverstick's home. I must have been living there or with Mr. Lott in the summer of 1880, but I do not know positively. I think I was living at Mr. Hiltabidel's when I was married to Harrison Hartzell. I am told that I was married to him in 1884; I do not know the year, but my boy, Charlie was a good sized boy when I was married to Hartzell.

I do not remember what was in any papers I signed for a pension. If I gave my age as more than 64 years at that time, I believe I must have been mistaken. When my husband died they talked of taking me to the County Infirmary, but my son Charles took me to live with him. I have lived with him since that time. He is married, has a large family and is poor. He resides at 73 Rosa Street, Tiffin, Ohio.

Joanna Mate Sun Dec 1 17:09:59 1996 Looking for any information concerning my father, Theodore ANDERSON. I do not know my (PENN) SISTER. His sisters name was Margaret (married name unknown), I believe she was married to a doctor or someone in the medical field. His brother's names whom I remember are Vigo, Hulgar and Iler. Iler was employed in the mines and died of a heart attack while at work in 1954. I believe my father was employed in the mines during 1951-52. My father was married to Eleanor Josephine PAVLIK sometime between 1940-45. He has two daughters Joanna Karen ANDERSON, born 9/24/47 and Jacquelyn Kay ANDERSON, born 9/16/48. I believe my grandparents died sometime between 1956 and 1958. There were many aunts, uncles and cousins living in the Upper Peninsula, Flint and Detroit. My father was last known to reside in Detroit in 1959. I believe my grandfather Joanna Mate Tue Dec 3 09:15:37 1996 ANDERSON, Theodore, my father. Last known to reside in Detroit, 1959. His family had been established in the Upper Peninsula for quite some time. His parents owned a small home. His father worked for the railroad as a conductor or ticketmaster and retired between 1951-54. I do not know his father's first name, but believe his mother's first name to be Anna. He had several brothers and one sister. Names that I remember are Vigo, Hulgar and Iler. Iler was employed in mining and owned a farm and raised chickens and horses. Iler died in 1954-55, reportedly while at work in the mine. My father's sister's name was Margaret, married name unknown. I believe she was married to someone in the medical profession. My father was married to Eleanor Josephine PAVLIK sometime between 1940 and 1945. He has two children Joanna Karen born 9/24/47 and Jacquelyn Kay born 9/16/48. I am not confident what county or counties these individuals resided in, even though I actually attended kindergarten somewhere in the upper peninsula.

PETER E. ILER, distiller, was born at Wooster, Ohio, February 10, 1840, and lived there until eight years of age. He moved to Tiffin, Ohio, where he resided until he came to Omaha in 1866. He was in the liquor and distillery business in Tiffin up to 1867, when he sold out and permanently located at Omaha. He was married at Tiffin to Mary A. Denzer, a native of that place. They have four children--William E., May, Edith and Bessie. One son, Augustus K., died in infancy. He has been an A. F. & A. M. for several years. Mr. Iler is president of the Manufacturer's and Merchant's Union and a member of the National Distillers' Association, being an officer and director therein. The firm of Iler & Co. is now composed of Peter E. Iler and Joseph D. Iler.

JOSEPH D. ILER, secretary of the Willow Springs Distillery Company and a member of the firm of Iler & Co., was born at Wooster, Ohio. He lived at that place and at Tiffin, Ohio, until 1867, since which year he has been a resident of Omaha. He was married at Omaha in 1880 to Miss Georgie M. Gray, a native of New York. Mr. Iler is one of the owners of the well known Cozzens House at Omaha, which was built by George Francis Train.

Bill Iler, vice president of service operations of The Fagan Company (a large Kansas City-based mechanical contractor said that pressing management and delivery needs on major construction projects required instantaneous and efficient communications. Fagan works with general contractors, materials suppliers and construction crews on a daily-sometimes hourly-basis.

"When you have field people out on job sites, you don't want them sitting idle just waiting for information or instructions on a replacement part," Iler said. "In construction, the faster the guy on the job gets the information he needs, the more productive he can be." In addition to management direction, the timing of deliveries of building materials, equipment and personnel were also vital for the success of a construction project, he added.

Iler's desire to facilitate closer communications links with his company staff and subcontractors prompted him to sign his company up with Nextel Communications and its Nextel Builders Network Program. Nextel technology combines five telecommunications tools into one-digital cellular, paging, voice mail, text messaging and Nextel Direct Connect.

ILLER Charles Hedley Iler of Calgary, passed away at the Foothills Hospital on June 5, 1998 in his 91st year. He is survived by a daughter Gail of Calgary, nieces and nephews and other family members of the Iler/McNutt family in Canada and U.S.A. Special family friends, Arline Charter and children, Joan and Vic Merryfield and children and Ron Slifka; and special family friend and companion, Nippi. He will be especially missed by Melva Cochran, the faithful home care provider who gave loyal and dependable emotional and physical support, Public Health Nurse Sandra Morgan and Doctors, John Morgan and Colin Chandler who were especially helpful and supportive throughout the years. He was predeceased by his wife, Belle all of his thirteen siblings (most recently by sisters Peg and Alice), his parents, Eugene and Jennie, and special family friends Margaret and Sally Slifka. He will be remembered as a kind, caring person who was loyal and generous to a fault, even when those around him could not always be. He had a "wicked, but not devastating" sense of humour, even on the telephone. He loved his family, nature (especially the Rocky Mountains) and animals of all sorts. He left school at age fourteen because he was bored there and also to help earn money for his family. He was self-taught on almost all subjects through books, documentaries, movies and travelling. He worked as a farm hand and horse trainer, survived as a hobo and eventually worked as a salesman and sales manager for Christie Brown & Co./Nabisco in Calgary, Red Deer and Winnipeg for nearly forty years. Before he moved to Calgary in 1946, he lived in various areas

Samuel and Polly are buried in Ewington, OH located in Gallia County Ohio. There are a number of Oilers interned in the cemetery. My nephew has an atlas from around 1880 which belonged to James Oiler, Samuel and Polly's son, which gives a very brief account of James Oiler's life in Gallia County.

Hope this sheds a little light on the subject.

Arner

Pamela Rowley of Rockland, ON sent us a packet of papers from the National Archives in Ottawa relating to the land claims for early settlers in the New Settlement, Colchester and Gosfield. In particular, there are documents relating to Jacob Arner. She is continuing to research these claims, and has offered to send them to us. Thanks, Pamela!

Seated: Charles T. Arner, Ellen (Fox) Arner, holding baby Charles; James H. Brown, Jessie (Brown) Martin, (Mrs. Robert) and Louisa Sophia (Thomson) Brown. Photo by Alfred Arner.
Note: A link between these families may be the Lockhart ancestry of John Bertrand and Louisa Thomson. Ellen Fox's mother was Amanda Thomson.

Fox

Dave and Wilma Pickering of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, spent some time at HEIRS Library recently. They toured our area and visited with several genealogists. We are impressed with their computerized research on the Fox family, together with a well-written story compiling all available information. They have promised a report on their discoveries for our next newsletter.

Herchmer

Mac Pollock of Grand Blanc, Michigan, phoned for help to find information about a Loyalist family named Herchmer or Herkimer, who settled first at Kingston. This is far from our area, but perhaps someone in our membership can assist. Mac's Fax is 810 767 9454; phone 810 694 2472.

JAMES/OILER

Posted by Jean Sallee Smulhwood <JSSmal@aol.com> on Sun, 8 Feb 1998, at 2:16 p.m.

Surnames: James, Oiler, Yates

William OILER and his wife Susan YATES Oiler lived in Metcalfe County from their marriage in July of 1846 until his death between 1870 - 1875. Their daughter, Margaret Catherine Oiler b 2 September 1853 m Albert JAMES on 11 Nov 1875. The ceremony took place at the home of Thomas JAMES (brother or father of Albert?). By 1880, Catherine, her mother Susan, and Catherine's two young children were living in Larue Co., KY. I have a copy of the marriage record from the county court house, and a copy of the document she signed stating that she was 22 years of age, her father was deceased, and she had no certificate to marry. This page is dated 16 Oct 1875. I have been to the KY state archives, and I have searched on line. I have been unable to locate any record of the divorce, or any info on either Albert or Thomas JAMES. Any assistance will be appreciated. Thanks.

Surnames:

I am researching the SALLEE line in KY, and I have obtained obituaries on Maggie JANES, and Oscar SALLEE, each who passed away in Jefferson Co., KY in 1971. She on 4 June and he on 17 Aug. When she died, he was listed as her only survivor, and when he died, his obituary listed no survivors. They both had been born in Metcalfe Co., KY. She was buried in Evergreen Cemetery on Preston Hwy in Louisville. He was buried in Little Muddy Cemetery in Butler Co., near Morgantown.

Another Margaret JANES I am looking for was b in Metcalfe Co. in 1853, Margaret Catherine OILER, who married Albert T. JANES 16 Nov 1875. They had 2 known children, Loney L. b 1876, and Mary b. 1879. They divorced in Metcalfe Co., KY in 1879/1880 and she moved with her mother and her two children to Larue Co., KY. I cannot find any record that she remarried, but she is said to have moved on to Jefferson Co., KY. around 1900.

Any information on any of these individuals is sought, and will be greatly appreciated.

Charles W. and Elizabeth (Oyler) WRIGHT

Posted by Roger H. Wright <ahwright@aol.com> on Fri, 27 Nov 1998

Surnames: Wright, Oyler

I am searching for any information from Irondequoit, Monroe County, NY area, concerning the family of Charles W. and Elizabeth (Oyler) WRIGHT. Records indicate they resided there ca. 1839 to 1844. They emigrated from England in 1839. One of their children, Charles Westminister WRIGHT, died (May 13, 1841), and was buried in what was then known as Hooker's Burial Ground, Monroe County, NY. Charles W. and Elizabeth had other children; Elizabeth Addy, George W., Emma Sophia, Guilford A., Mary C., and Clara Jane. Any information about this family, or the location (and possible name change of Hooker's Burial Ground), would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you, very much.

Regards,

Roger H. Wright

Does anyone have any info on Oscar SALLEE b Metcalfe Co, KY 1887/8 or his sister Maggie SALLEE JANES b Metcalfe Co, KY 1883??? I need parents, spouse(s) or siblings.

I have been working from Metcalfe Co., KY 1850, 1860 & 1870 censuses to obtain info on my SALLEE line. Some of the people I have directly connected to are Abraham SALLEE, b 1825 in Lee Co VA, moved to METCALFE Co, KY before 1860. His wife Elizabeth, and their known children, Jane, Frank, Albert, Melinda and James L. Frank Sallee, my ggf married Rachel Jane OILER in Metcalfe Co, in 1873. Her sister, Margaret Catherine OILER married Albert JANES 16 Nov 1875.

I first thought the above Maggie JANES was this person, but there is an age difference. I have now found that the Maggie JANES who died in 1971 at the age of 88 was a SALLEE and married a JANES.

Morgan,

I was really excited about your prompt reply to my query, especially because it has been a long time since I last received any new data on my EYLER ancestry. I noticed Johan Conrad EULER died in 1751 in Manheim Twp. York, PA. His wife died in 1763 in Manheim Twp. Lancaster, PA. Should this be Manheim Twp. York, PA? Would you check the dates of birth (1662) and marriage (1670) of C. Michael EULER? Was his wife (b. 1650) actually 12 years older than he?

You mentioned that you had nothing on Elizabeth EYLER's descendants, so I am enclosing a Descendancy Chart on her parents. If you would like additional details, I could compile a GEDCOM file, or printout family group sheets on specific families.

I will be most appreciative of any data you considered sending by mail. My Winter address until about the middle of March is:

Charles M. Chesnutwood

Mesa, AZ 85205-7200

My Summer address will be:

1508 West Cornerstone Drive

Thanks again for your help.
